

Swiss Chancellery Nairobi

Project Competition 2011

“Squaring Tradition”

Schenker

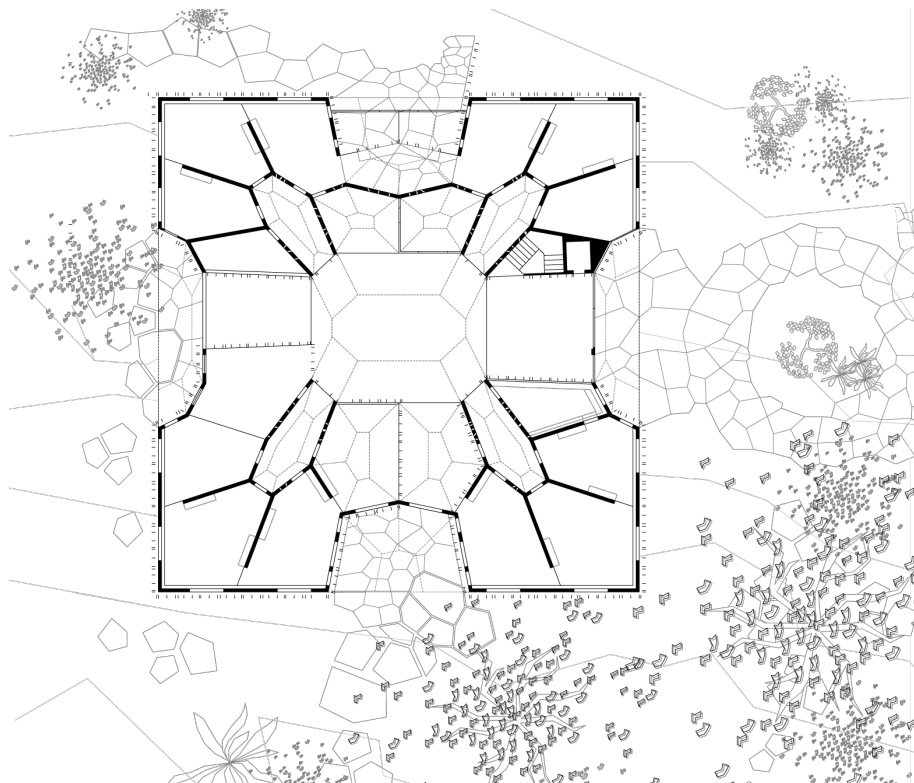

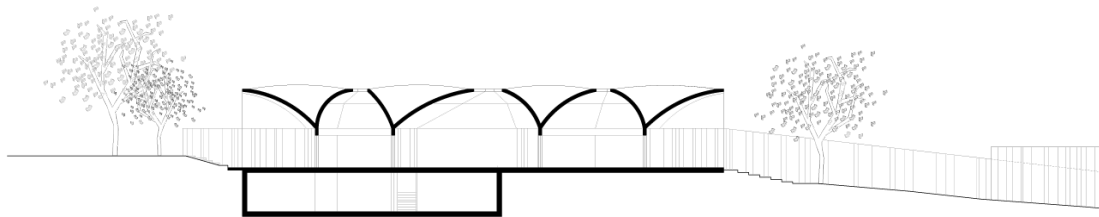

“Inspired by the Kenyan settlements structures of the Maasai, the new chancellery in Nairobi is organized analogous to an Enkang.”

Weber

“The traditional Enkang settlement is an action space in the family and social life of the Maasai and a meeting place of the council of elders.”

Weber

Schenker

PROJECT DETAILS

- Commission Type:
One-stage competition
- Client:
Schweizer Bundesamt für Bauten
und Logistik
- Location:
Nairobi, KE
- Competition:
2011
- GFA:
1400 m²
- Building Costs:
3,3 M CHF
- Team:
Michael Salvi, Tiago Santana,
Andres Schenker, Katalin Tóth,
Thomas Weber

COOPERATION

- Architecture:
SSSVT Architekten
- Visualization:
Miss 3